"THE NEEDS"

- Public tax support
- Increased attendance at school activities
- Support of school fundraising programs
- Public and student awareness of activities values
- Positive parental involvement
- Sustained school administrator and faculty support

With A SPECIAL Added Attraction "THE VALUES"

- High school students with far greater attendance records, significantly lower dropout rates and generally better academic performance.
- The best value in public education today: activities programs educating over $\frac{1}{2}$ the total student population for approximately 1% of the total school budget.
- Educational opportunities which teach proper values, instill poise and confidence, build happier and better citizens, and are the most valid predictors for success in later life or in a chosen career field.

NOTE: The listing of schools in the Record Book includes the city, the name of the high school, and the state. In cases where the city and the name of the high school are the same, just the city and state are listed. (Example: Chicago Brother Rice, IL, refers to Brother Rice High School in Chicago, Illinois. El Segundo, CA, refers to El Segundo High School in El Segundo, California.)

All ties are listed in chronological order with the most recent performance listed highest. If ties remain after applying that policy, the record holders are listed alphabetically by town name in the case of team records and by the individual's last name in the case of individual records.

All listings in this book are current through the 1980-81 school year.

Application for a national record may be made to the National Federation or the State High School Association. Candidates are encouraged to make application promptly after an outstanding performance.

The National Records Committee has set forth policy establishing an athletic season as the season in which there is state tournament competition or, in the case of a state holding dual state tournaments, the season in which most of the country is holding competition. An athletic career is limited to four of these seasons.

FOREWORD

The National Federation of State High School Associations welcomes you to the third edition of the National High School Sports Record Book. As the organizations responsible for protecting and promoting high school athletic programs in the United States, the National Federation and its membership acknowledge an obligation to make this publication available.

The National High School Sports Record Book will bring proper recognition to high school boys and girls, coaches and teams who have achieved outstanding performances in interscholastic athletic competition. The National Federation believes such recognition helps stimulate interest in high school athletic programs and motivates other competitors to improve their skills. Moreover, National Federation guidance of the national interscholastic records program will assure that only deserving teams and individuals will lay claim to national records.

The National Federation Records Committee oversees the interscholastic records program. The committee, which meets annually in July, forms policy which it believes is necessary to make the records program reliable and the records authentic. Occasionally, new policies have required deletion of performances which appeared in previous editions. The National Federation invites information which may lead to additional records listings or corrections of existing listings.

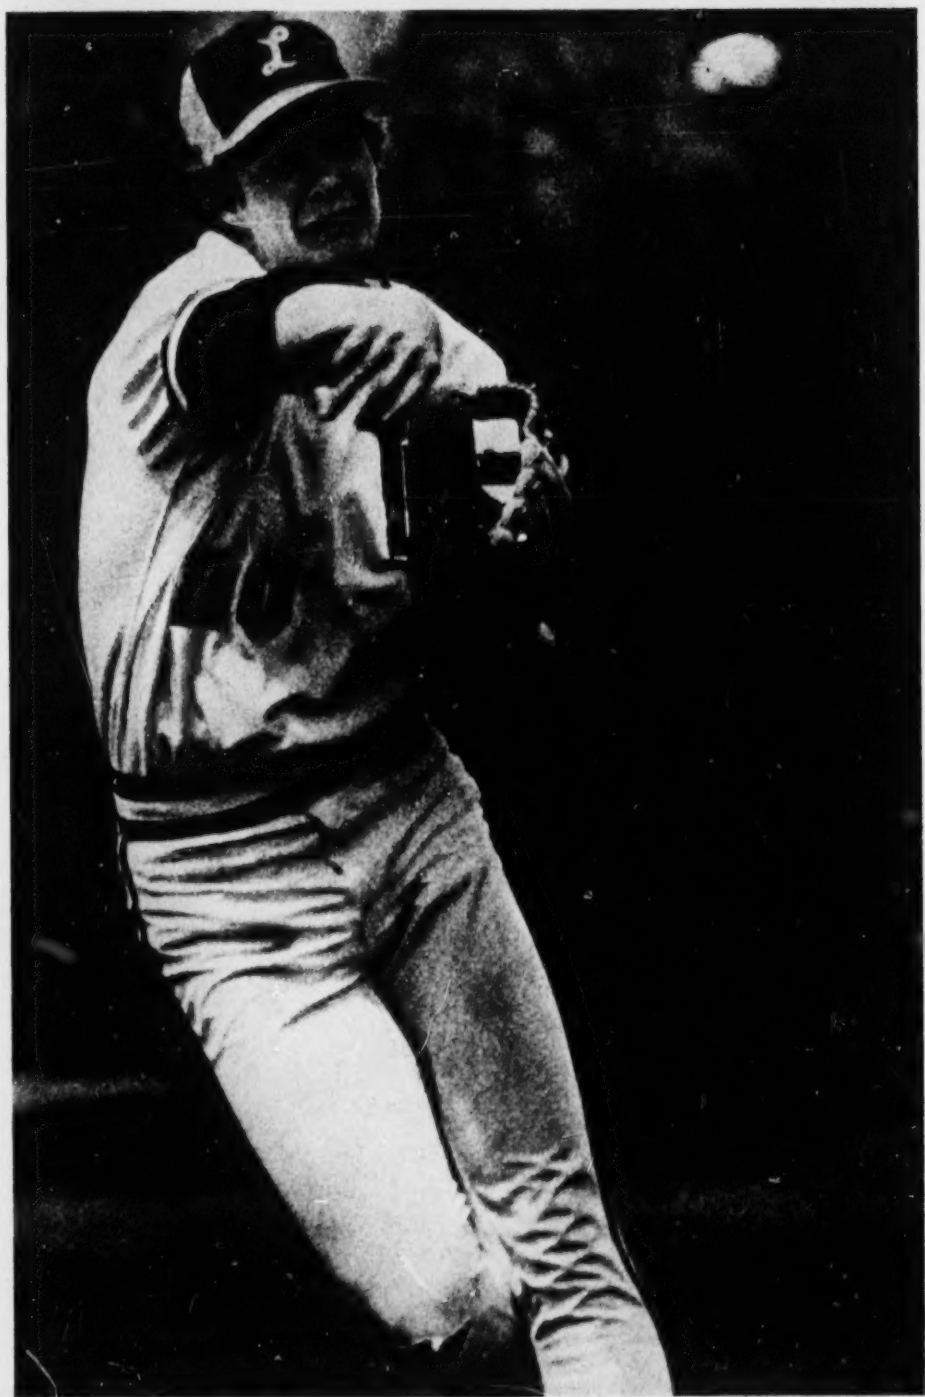

The National Federation would like to express its sincere thanks and appreciation to the many people who helped in the gathering of material contained in the 1982 edition of the Record Book.

A list of credits for photographs and other material contained in this fourth edition follows the records listings.

Prep baseball's first ace

Few high school performers have ever showcased their talents in as dramatic a fashion as Ken Beardslee, pitching great from Vermontville, Michigan.

During his short 25-game high school career he collected 452 hitters, won 24 of 25 pitching decisions, tossed eight no-hitters and two perfect games. His lone setback was also a demonstration of pitching brilliance as he dropped a 1-0 verdict his senior year.

The Michigan strikeout artist averaged better than 18 strikeouts a game and in 1949 averaged over 19 whiffs a game, striking out 209 in only 11 contests. He once struck out 25 hitters in a 10-inning triumph over Holt. Another of his top strikeout performances came in a one-hitter when he registered 20 K's against Saranac and in a no-hit effort against Pottersville he chalked up 19 strikeouts.

The prep standout went on to sign for $6,000 with the New York Yankees in 1949, the same year the Bronx Bombers garnered the signature of another up-and-coming young star from Missouri — a fellow by the name of Mickey Mantle. Although Beardslee never played with Mantle, he was a teammate of the Yank outfielder's lesser known brothers as well as such later New York heroes as Tony Kubek, Whitey Ford and Bill "Moose" Skowron.

The aspiring young pitcher was one step from the big leagues when a back injury in the International League prematurely halted his career. His record in the Yankees' minor league chain was an impressive 62-24, including a 32-8 standard over his final two seasons. When his playing days ended, Beardslee continued to lend talents to the game of baseball by conducting camps in Indiana and scouting for the Pittsburgh Pirates for nearly 20 years.

STAR GAZERS — Regarded as one of the finest to come out of Indiana, Don Mattingly (left) of Evansville Reitz Memorial set at least six state batting records while placing his name among the national leaders in several hitting categories. Cecil "Woody" Beisel (center) of Perry, Oklahoma, not only is the state's lone four-time wrestling champion, he is also the second most proficient long ball hitter in history. He clouted 37 roundtrippers in his high school career which spanned 1975-78. Major League star Bob Horner (right) had made a name for himself before he played for Arizona State or the Atlanta Braves. Horner, while preparing at Glendale Apollo in Arizona, crunched 23 career home runs.

TOP OFFENSIVE PERFORMERS — Mark Ryal (left) of Dewar, OK, concluded his prep career as the all-time national home run leader by blasting 43 from 1975-78. He also ranks sixth in career hits (164) and third in doubles (33). Shane Mack of Gahr, CA, turned in a remarkable record-setting feat last year, wiring together 16 consecutive hits over a five-game stretch. Rick Morse (right) ranks among the best in Oklahoma's long list of prep baseball greats. Last year the Enid Chisolm standout registered the second-best baserunning performance ever with an unblemished ratio of 62 stolen bases in as many attempts. His career stolen base count of 101 lists fourth all-time.

Watkins is fourth in all-time career home runs by a prep (33) and holds the all-time record for most home runs in one season (18). Andy Wakefield (right), the strapping blond bomber from Beckley Woodrow Wilson, West Virginia, hit a home run in nine consecutive games in 1977 on his way to a season total of 12.

Major stockholder in the prep record book

Dave Clyde was a prep phenomenon. He was once listed in 14 separate categories in the National High School Sports Record Book and his name still permeates the pitching categories.

Clyde is listed among the pitching leaders in 10 categories and heads the national listing in five departments. His 842 career strikeouts are over 250 more than runner-up Larry Knight of Chattanooga (TN) Lookout Valley and he is the only hurler in prep history to register over 300 strikeouts in a season.

Clyde's true dominance is shown in the number of times he is repeated. The Houston Westchester star is the only prep hurler to be listed twice for most shutouts in one season and most consecutive shutouts. His 327 and 251 strikeout totals from 1973 and 1972, respectively, rank first and fifth in the seasonal strikeout category.

No less than 43 times did Clyde strike out 10 or more batters in the 61 games he started. Only four times over the last two years of his career did he allow five or more hits.

MOUND MAGIC — Keith Atherton (above) of Mathews, VA, hurled four consecutive no-hitters in 1977 to earn himself a spot in the Record Book. He pitched five no-hitters and ten shutouts (eight consecutive) that season. Ron Robinson (below) of Woodlake, CA, posted 45 wins in his career, tossed six no-hitters and struck out 486 batters. He also qualified for one hitting category and four football passing listings.

GOOSE EGGS — Houston Astros' righthander James Rodney (J. R.) Richard was the first prep to be listed in both the hitting and pitching sections of the National High School Sports Record Book. He did not allow an earned run in 1969, his final year at Ruston Lincoln High School. Richard is only one of seven preps to hit four or more home runs in one game, turning the feat against Jonesboro Jackson in a 48-0 rout. The performance also garnered him 10 RBIs, two short of the national all-time high. Kelly Owens (right) of Junction City, AR, was nearly untouchable while registering a 45-2 career record the last three years. He produced records of 10-1, 17-0 and 18-1 and established a national mark by chalking up 32 consecutive victories. His 24 shutouts are second only to the national best of 29 established by David Clyde.

MAJOR NO-HITTERS — In the 1960 Texas State Conference AAA baseball final, Seguin, behind the no-hit hurling of Chuck Hartenstein (left), blanked Synder 3-0 for the coveted title. The smallish pitcher, known affectionately as "Twiggy" by his teammates, had stints with several major league clubs in his career, including the Chicago Cubs. In 1967, Los Angeles Dodger standout, Burt Hooton (center), led Corpus Christi King into the Texas Conference AAAA state final game by hurling a 2-0 no-hitter against Houston Lee in the semifinals. King went on to win the state crown, besting Abilene Cooper 1-0 in the final. Ken Holtzman (right) has made his rounds and hung up the spikes for the last time, retiring from the Chicago Cubs after his second stint with that National League club. Holtzman, who once pitched a no-hitter in the Missouri state semifinals for University City, started with the Chicago club, went to Oakland in the A's heyday, toured with the Yankees and Billy Martin before finally coming home. University City, who beat Springfield Hillcrest 4-0 behind Holtzman, won the state title that year (1963), downing defending state champion Cape Girardeau Central 6-3 in the finale.

LEADING HURLERS — Only one of five high school pitchers to win 50 or more games in his career, Baltimore Oriole ace Scott McGregor (left) continues to climb up the ladder of professional baseball. McGregor was twice named California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section Class AAA "Player-of-the-Year" while hurling for El Segundo in the early '70s. He posted a 51-6 career record and is listed in seven national high school pitching categories. Former Arizona State star and current big leaguer Floyd Bannister (center) didn't do too badly in high school either. Bannister had a career ERA of 0.56 while pitching for Seattle Kennedy in Washington State. He didn't allow an earned run in 1973 (0.00) and posted 15 victories while earning the team's Most Valuable Player award for the third straight year after leading the Lancers to a state title. Joey Porter (right) of South Natchez Adams, Mississippi, didn't allow a run for 80 consecutive innings in 1973, a national record.

NO SOFT TOUCH — Pillow Academy in Greenwood, Mississippi, is only one of five girls basketball teams to ever win 100 or more straight games. Four Pillow Academy teams had a hand in the record. The 1971-72 squad won its last 28 games in posting a 30-1 mark. The 72-73 squad and the 73-74 team (pictured above) both logged unblemished 35-0 records before the 1974-75 club lost its third game of the season, ending the streak at 100. The all-time mark of 218 consecutive victories was established over a seven-year span by Baskin, LA.

TOP TEAMS — The 1980-81 edition of the Livenia Ladywood, Michigan, basketball squad (above) set a national record by shooting at a 61.2 clip at the free throw line. The team also established an all-time rebounding mark by claiming 1,653 last year while averaging 68.9 per game, also a national best. The Roseburg, Oregon, 1980-81 team (below) also lists among the most proficient free throwing units in history, ranking among the all-time leaders in both attempts and free throws made in a season.

INDIVIDUAL

The 1981-82 edition of the National High School Sports Record Book makes no distinction between records for six-girl and five-girl basketball. Subsequent editions may contain such a separation.

SHARP SHOOTERS — Taylorville, North Carolina standout Kay Wilson (left) scored 104 points in one game in 1963, making her one of 13 girls to ever reach the century mark. Denise Long of Union Whitten, Iowa, is a three-time member of the elite 100-point club. Valerie Privett (center) of St. George, Georgia, ranks as one of the most prolific free throw shooters in girls basketball history. She holds the national marks for career free throws attempted (778) and per game average in a season (11.14). Another deadeye from the charity stripe, Jennifer Johnson (right) dropped in 445 career shots, third best ever, and set a national standard with 268 attempts during junior year (1977-78) at Elizabeth, LA.

ALMOST POINTLESS — The 1928-29 Alliance, Ohio, basketball team left a touch of history for the state when it played rival Massillon in February 1929. Jim Battin (third from left, front row) scored the only field goal of the contest in a 3-2 victory over Massillon. Battin's field goal, a halfcourt desperation shot, was Alliance's only attempted field goal of the contest.

SCORING TRADITION — Hobbs, New Mexico, and coach Ralph Tas'ker have become basketball legends in the Southwest. The 1969-70 team (pictured above) averaged more than 115 points a game in rolling to a 26-1 record and capturing the state class AAAA title.

The end of an era

On February 6, 1925, the glorious and unparalleled 159-game winning streak of Passaic (NJ) High School was ended by Hackensack (NJ) High School, 39-35.

The string of victories began on December 17, 1919, and ended before 400 astonished fans at the Hackensack Armory. During the five and one-half years, the Hackensack Golden Tornadoes tried and failed 11 times to beat Passaic, including a 54-37 loss earlier in the 1924-25 season.

The fateful game began with Hackensack jumping out to a 4-0 lead. Passaic, under Coach Amasa Marks, responded with 10 straight points and led 10-6 at the end of the first quarter. Hackensack fought back for an 18-17 halftime lead, and it pulled away to a 32-28 lead after three quarters. Each team scored seven points in the final period.

Passaic's downfall was at the foul line where it hit on seven of 14 free throws. Hackensack made 11 of 15 charity tosses for Coach John Steinhilber.

Bob Irwin, sports editor of the "Hackensack Daily Herald," covered the game and filed this report:

"Hackensack was determined to win. The average team would have passed the ball on its backcourt to keep Passaic from scoring. This is the common method used by a team to retain its lead. It delays a game and prevents the other side from scoring.

"But Hackensack played fair to the end. It wanted to win without any trickery and it did."

PERFECTION — Frank Scott Bunnell High School of Stratford, CT, had a perfect 25-for-25 night at the free-throw line on December 12, 1979. Keith Royal (No. 14) was 12-for-12 in Bunnell's 61-45 victory over Jonathan Law H.S. of Milford.

TOP CAREER SCORERS — Greg Procell (left) scored 6,702 career points while prepping at Noble Ebarb High in west central Louisiana. Procell averaged 37.2 points a game during his career. During his senior year Procell ripped the nets for 3,173 points, a 46.7 average. He scored 100 points in one game during the 1969-70 season on the way to leading Ebarb to a Louisiana Class C (small school) state title. His playing style switched from scorer to playmaker at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, Louisiana. He led the team in assists his junior year (1972-73) with 98 and averaged 11.6 points a game in 25 contests. His senior year, though hampered by injury, Procell led the Demons to a berth in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) National Tournament. He averaged 7.1 points a game. Procell was inducted into the Louisiana High School Hall of Fame in January 1979, along with San Francisco Giant star, Vida Blue. Bruce Williams (right) scored 1,851 points during the 1979-80 season to bring his four-year total to 5,367 — second best ever. He scored 836 points as a freshman, 1,181 points as a sophomore and 1,499 points as a junior for Florien High in Louisiana. His 126 points as an eighth grader substituting on the varsity are not included in his career total of 5,367 points.

HARDWOOD HIGHS — Mettar, Georgia, product, Laven Mercer (left), holds the national record for best rebound average in one season. Mercer collected 30.8 rebounds per game his senior year at Mettar (1975-76) and holds the school records for most points (51) and most rebounds (42) in a single game. Kenneth Johnson (center) of Grandfield, Oklahoma, broke into several national high school scoring categories on the strength of a 105-point performance against Terrel. Johnson led Grandfield past Terrel 120-65 while setting the national record for most field goals attempted in one game (45-of-85). NBA star Tom McMillen (right) goes up for two of 38 points in the 1970 Pennsylvania state basketball tournament finals. McMillen, who prepped at Mansfield, shot over 70 percent from the floor over his high school career and scored 3,608 points, ninth on the all-time scoring charts.

HIGH POINTERS — Bennie Fuller (left), prepping at Arkansas School for the Deaf in Little Rock, is one of only seven preps to score 4,000 or more points in his career. Fuller once posted the highest scoring average for one season, averaging 50.9 in 1970-71. Kent Hyde (center) of Onida, South Dakota, ranks fourth nationally in scoring average for one season, popping in 50.4 points-per-game during the 1953-54 campaign. Devil's Lake North Dakota School for the Deaf product Steve Blehm (right) holds the national career scoring average record of 41.1 points-per-game. Blehm also holds the national records for scoring average in sophomore and freshman seasons.

TALL TALES — Win Chamberlain, shown (left) in Big Eight Conference action for the University of Kansas, wasn't only a prolific scorer in college and the NBA. The Philadelphia Overbrook, Pennsylvania, skyscraper once scored 36 points in one quarter. Scottsville Allen County, Kentucky star Jim McDaniels (right), averaged 28 rebounds a game in 1970-71 before going on to star at Western Kentucky and the NBA.

From little Crystal City to Congress

From a small city in Missouri to one of the highest ranking offices in the nation's government, United States Senator Bill Bradley (D-New Jersey) has pounded a few roads to get where he is today.

Bradley was born and raised in Crystal City, where he scored 3,068 points in his four-year high school career. Spanning 1957-61, Bradley scored at a 27.4 points-per-game clip through his 112-game high school stint. Playing for coach Arvel Popp's Hornets, Bradley amassed 404 points his freshman season, 672 as a sophomore, 946 as a junior, and closed out his sparkling career with 1,046.

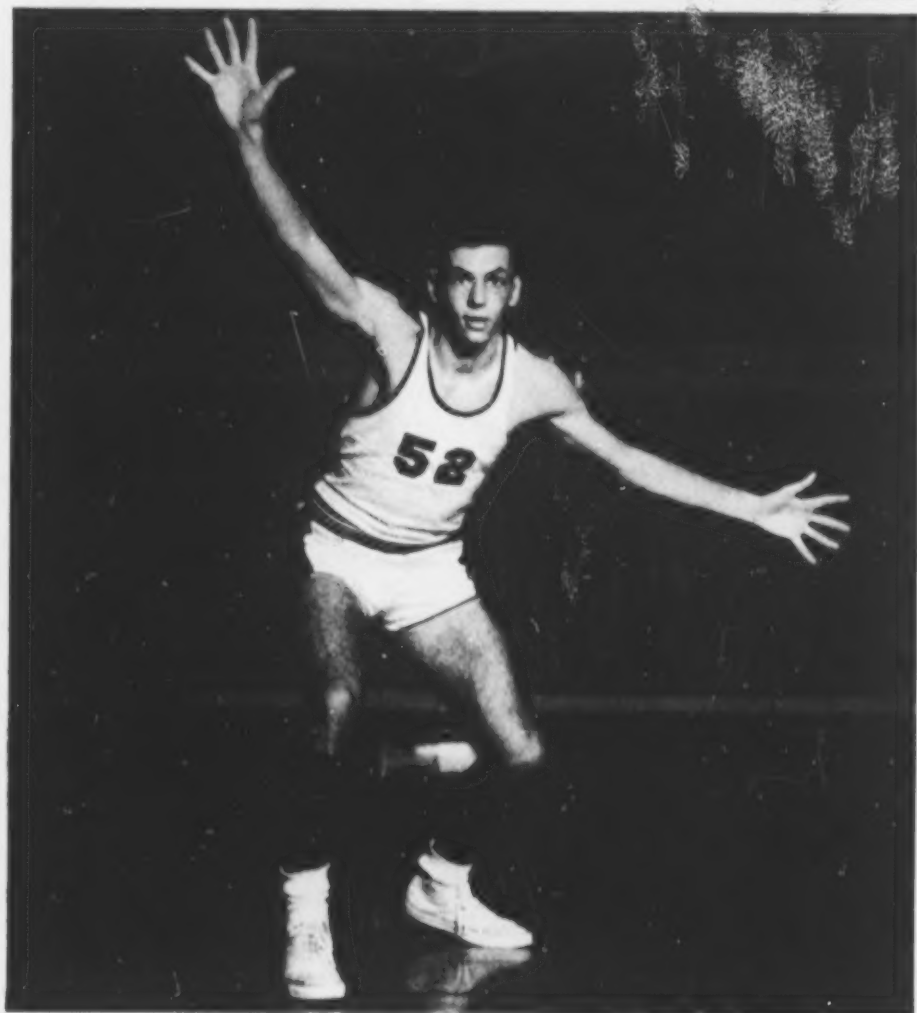

Bradley led the Hornets into the final four of the Missouri state tournament three times but the elusive title escaped Crystal City all three years. The Hornets finished fourth in his sophomore year, third when he was a junior, and lost to St. Louis University in the finals 52-51 his senior year. Crystal City had beaten University previously that same year.

Bradley pumped in 20 or more points in 89 of his 112 high school games. Included were 12 games of 30 or more points, seven of 40 or more, and two of 50 or more.

Born in 1943 to banker Warren Bradley and wife Susan, the senator resided in Crystal City until he enrolled at Princeton University in New Jersey. There Bradley continued to excel on the hardwood. He was named to an All-American squad twice and helped the United States team garner a gold medal in the 1964 Olympic Games.

After graduating a Rhodes Scholar in 1965, Bradley went overseas to Oxford for two years before returning home to play for the New York Knicks of the National Basketball Association (NBA). His illustrious 10-year pro career ended in 1977.

A season to remember

The 1979-80 basketball campaign for Bobby Joe Douglas is one to remember and one for the record book. The Marion, LA, cager scored at the rate of 54.0 points per game, best in the history of high school basketball.

Douglas scored 2,052 of his team's 3,285 points (63 percent). His best effort was 93 points in Marion's 116-44 crushing of Ouachita Christian as he tallied 54 points in the second half, including 36 points in the fourth quarter.

The Marion scoring machine scored in the 70s four times, in the 60s seven times, in the 50s 12 times, and in the 40s eight times. His lowest output of the season was 25 points.

Marion High finished with only a 25-12 record, but won its district championship. It was defeated in the first round of the state playoffs by eventual state champion, Summerfield.

Marion Head Coach Malcum George urged Douglas to shoot and his teammates didn't seem to mind. During the season, center Gary Wayne said, "We love each other. Bobby doesn't take bad shots and a lot of times he passes off when the coach has told him to shoot."

Douglas' younger brother, Dennis, was also a starter on Marion's team and said during the season, "If Bobby Joe gets the record, we'll all share in it. When he's not hitting, he'll pass off until he gets hot again. Nobody on this team is jealous."

Douglas was quick to praise his teammates during the season: "I don't do anything by myself. The rest of them ought to get the same attention I do. They help on the boards and feed me the ball. Without them I wouldn't be anything."

Douglas is now enrolled at Northeast Louisiana University.

Glasgow girls continue winning tradition

The winningest girls cross country team in the nation — Glasgow, Montana — continued its winning ways in 1980. By winning the Montana Class A girls cross country championship, the Scotties continued a string of eight consecutive state crowns, most ever for a girls unit.

The first three titles in the streak came under the direction of coach Dan Freund, now executive director of the Montana High School Association. The last five championships have been added during the coach tenure of Mark Yoakam. Yoakam's 1980 squad captured the state Class A victory by placing four girls in the top 15 en route to 51 points, 16 points better than runner-up Ronan.

Attempting to keep pace with Glasgow were Nashville Harpeth Hall of Tennessee and Irmo, South Carolina. Coach Susan Russ' Harpeth Hall contingent became only the fourth school ever to win five consecutive girls state championships while Mike Mauldin's Irmo girls team ran away with a 48-point victory and a fourth consecutive South Carolina title.

PERENNIAL CHAMPS — Shown above is the 1980 edition of coach Mark Yoakam's Glasgow cross country team which ran away with an eighth consecutive Montana team championship a year ago. The eight titles stand as the nation's best for both consecutive and all-time girls championships.

Shown above is the 1979 unit which added the 18th crown and was paced by individual champion Jay Adams' 13:28 clocking over the 2.5-mile championship distance. The all-time mark for state championships of 29 is held by LaSalle High School of Providence, Rhode Island.

MEMORY JOGGERS — Paul Voss (left) ranks as one of 23 high school runners to win three or more cross country championships. Voss, who set new records on eight different courses as a senior, completed his triple for Clinton, Wisconsin, in 1979. Bill McCheesney (center) helped South Eugene to a string of eight straight Oregon championships by taking individual Class AAA honors from 1974-76. Andy Montanez (right) captured three consecutive Colorado Division II crowns for Rocky Ford in 1974, 1975 and '76.

The boys cross country campaign was highlighted by the individual efforts of Fernando Omeasoo who paced Browning, Montana, to a top 10 listing for consecutive state championships. Omeasoo became only the third four-time state champion in history by negotiating the Montana Class B championship three-mile course in a record 15:27.8 clocking. His performance helped carry coach Randy Sheppard's team to their seventh straight state championship.

An Exeter special team

In the East, field hockey is played hard and tough. It's been a mainstay for a long time. Few play it harder or tougher than Exeter, New Hampshire.

Its reign is marked with 11 undefeated seasons. It won 28 straight at one point and put together undefeated strings of 57 and 46 games.

Exeter is synonymous with good field hockey. The New Hampshire school holds four national records including most goals scored in one game (13), best scoring average per game for one season (5.75), and most consecutive shutouts (19). Twice Exeter has averaged over five goals a game, including the 1956 national mark when it drove home 46 goals in just eight games. Exeter finished that season 8-0-0 with eight shutouts. Its 1959 average of 5.11 goals-per-game ranks fourth in the national listings.

Sandra Moore played at Exeter from 1962-65, helping fashion a 27-5-4 mark during those four years. Moore coached at Exeter from 1970 through 1978, and is now head field hockey coach at Washington State University.

Sharon DeHart took over the tradition in 1979, guiding the team to a 9-3-4 record with a school-record ten shutouts her first year and a 9-1-4 mark a year ago while directing the school to second place in the New Hampshire Class AA state race.

ONE-TWO PUNCH — Providing glittering offensive performances for Milford (PA) Delaware Valley during the 1970's were Jill Ridley (left), who scored a national-record 48 goals in 1978, and Carleen McAllister, who scored 86 career goals (1974-76) to list third all-time. Their names dot the national field hockey scoring lists in virtually every offensive department.

MDV uses '70s to produce countless marks

No less outstanding than the Exeter High School tradition is the tradition of excellence at Delaware Valley in Milford, Pennsylvania. It's just a shorter tradition.

During the decade of the 1970s, MDV won 105 games, while losing only 19 and tying four. From 1975 through 1979, MDV posted 86 wins, four losses and one tie.

The 1978 squad went undefeated in 22 games and won the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association state field hockey championship. The 1979 squad won 17 games before losing in the PIAAA state tourney, producing a 39-game winning streak over 1978 and 1979 that moved MDV well ahead of Exeter's 28-game streak and into second place in prep field hockey history.

MDV holds five of the top seven places for most goals scored in a season. The 1978 total of 123 goals is tops, and the 1976 total of 103 goals is second best ever.

Its 1976 scoring average of 5.72 goals per games ranks just behind Exeter's national mark of 5.75 goals per game for the 1956 season. MDV also holds the third place spot for its 1978 pace of 5.59 goals per game.

MDV's successful tradition is steeped in defense. It dominates the lists of team shutouts; and its two outstanding goalies during the past six seasons — Anita Emery and Beth Case — dominate the individual records for goalies.

Emery posted 42 shutouts in three seasons and Case had 32 shutouts in two seasons. Case allowed six goals during MDV's 1978 championship campaign and only two goals during its 18-game season in 1979.

Carleen McAllister and Jill Ridley have been the offensive stars for MDV during the late 1970s. McAllister scored 86 goals during her three-year career (1974-79). Ridley scored 78 goals in two years (1977-78).

Ridley's 48-goal performance in 1978 is a season record. McAllister's 41 goals for 1976 ranks third.

OFFENSIVE STANDOUT CLIMBS CHARTS —

Teresa Galley of Silver Lake Regional of Kingston-Pembroke, Massachusetts, used an outstanding 1980 season to become one of the most proficient scorers ever. During her four-year career she recorded 96 goals, second on the national all-time charts, despite missing much of her junior campaign with an injury. This past season Galley tallied 42 goals, the second-best count ever for a season, and registered a national record of 11 goals in one game while helping the Lakers equal the single game national standard of 13.

STAR GOALIES — Anita Emery (above) of Milford Delaware Valley, Pennsylvania, was nothing short of spectacular in her three-year career. Emery collected a national record 42 shutouts, including 17 in 1976 and 15 in 1977. Her goals against average for her 51 high school games was a stunning 0.22, allowing only 11 goals, as the squad piled up a 47-3-1 record. Continuing in this fine tradition during 1978 was Beth Case (below) who allowed only 6 goals during a 17-game regular season for MDV. She gave up only one goal — on a penalty stroke — during six district and state tournament games, leading MDV to a 22-0 record and the state crown. She had 17 shutouts, tying Emery's 1976 record. In 1979, Case had 15 shutouts and allowed only two goals all season as MDV posted a 17-1 record for the season.

Night football was a bright idea

On September 21, 1928, two Illinois football teams, Westville High and Millford High, played the first night high school football game.

The field that night was illuminated by 28 1,000-watt bulbs installed on saplings cut from a nearby woods. The light produced was described as a "reflected glow."

Russ Guin, then principal of Westville, was the originator of the idea. After stopping at a gas station one night, Guin became convinced that the station's lights were "bright enough to play football by." Secondly, since Westville was a mining town, the miners had to work during the day and could not see their kids play unless the games were at night.

Equipment costs — including lights, reflectors, poles and installation — cost Westville about $600 to $700. Guin thought he might be taking a risk by staging the event without the permission of the Westville School Board.

In fact, Guin was threatened to be fired by a school board member after news of the proposed night game leaked out. However, after the game turned out to be a success, that board member reportedly boasted, "That's the way we do things around here."

Almost one year later, Wellington High School of Kansas made its contribution to high school night football by constructing a football facility with permanent lighting.

On September 20, 1929, Wellington High School and Blackwell High from Oklahoma played the first game under the new lights.

The following Sunday edition of the "Topeka Capital-Journal" proclaimed the football game a success. A paragraph from the story on the game read: "There was just a little trouble experienced at times in spying the ball on a high punt or pass. Use of a white football will eliminate this, officials declared. Otherwise, things went off just as nicely as if played in the full light of an autumn sun."

The field, 360 feet in length, was lighted by 12 flood lights of 2000 watts. Six poles were installed on each side of the field and the lights were attached to the poles. The poles were approximately 50 feet high.

HIGH SCORERS — Sealy, Texas, standout Eric Dickerson (left) rushed for 5,889 yards and had 31 100-yard performances during his career. Now one of the nation's top collegiate performers at Southern Methodist University, he scored 84 career high school touchdowns, including 37 in 1978. Former New York Yankees' pitcher Don Gullett (center) once scored 72 points in a high school football game. Gullett turned the trick while playing at South Shore McKell in Kentucky in 1968. Jamie Clodfelter of McClave, Colorado, set a national mark by kicking five field goals in a game in 1979. He was successful from distances of 19, 25, 30, 35 and 47 yards.

PUTTING RIGHT FOOT FORWARD

— Adding his name to the growing list of long range field goal kickers last year was Kurt Baal of Denver Lutheran. Baal logged the second longest field goal ever, only one yard shy of the national mark shared by Russell Wheatley of Odessa Permian, TX, and Kelly Imhoff of Kent, WA., by connecting on a 61-yarder against Machebeuf. The boot came with only three seconds remaining in the game and provided Lutheran a thrilling 13-12 triumph.

LONG DISTANCE — It should have been Tony Franklin's middle name. The soccer-style kicker from Fort Worth, Texas, who has performed so well for the Philadelphia Eagles, holds 18 NCAA kicking records and narrowly missed two other career marks. Included in the list of accolades are several distance marks. Franklin holds the college record for most field goals made in one game of over 60 yards, kicking a 64- and a 65-yarder against Baylor in 1976 while attending Texas A & M. The 5-foot-10, 180-pounder, a graduate of Arlington Heights High School in Fort Worth, booted a 58-yarder for the Yellow Jackets in 1974. The kick ties him for eighth on the all-time national list for longest field goal in high school competition.

Running to glory

From 1950-53, Ken Hall of Sugar Land, Texas, went to the top of the high school record listings in 12 categories for which he still holds the national high school record: most points in a career (899), most points in a season (395), most touchdowns in a career (127), most touchdowns in a season (57), most total yards in a career (14,558) and in a season (5,146) and per game (428.8), most rushing yards in a career (11,232) and in a season (4,045) and per game (337.1), most 100-yard games in a career (38) and most consecutive 100-yard games (21); and his 520 yards rushing in a single game in 1953 stood as the national record until John Bunch rushed for 608 yards in 1974 for Elkins, Arizona.

The closest thing high school football has had to Hall's phenomenal career has come in recent years in the outstanding accomplishments of a pair of running backs from the South — Herschel Walker of Wrightsville Johnson County, Georgia, and Mike Atkinson of Princeton, North Carolina.

Walker, who paced the University of Georgia to the mythical number one collegiate ranking as a freshman in 1980, served notice of his brilliant skills during a prep career that spanned 1977-79. He concluded his high school performance with a remarkable 1979 campaign that moved his name into nearly every rushing category and 12 overall national listings.

A pounding runner with world class sprinter's speed, Walker finished his illustrious career with 6,137 yards rushing and as a senior sparked nationwide attention by averaging over 200 yards per contest. He had 32 100-yard rushing performances during his career and established national scoring marks for career rushing touchdowns (79) and rushing touchdowns in a season (42).

Walker's records were barely added to the record book when Atkinson finished up his glittering career at Princeton by shattering both of the Georgia All-American's scoring marks en route to establishing his name among the top rushers in high school history. Now a student at Duke, Atkinson established four national records including the standards for most career touchdowns rushing (92), most career rushing attempts (929), most rushing touchdowns in a season (43) and most rushing attempts in a game (40). He also holds down the runner-up spot in total career points (672) and career touchdowns (98) behind Hall's long-standing efforts of 899 points and 127 touchdowns.

RUSHING GREATS — One of the finest runners in high school history, Herschel Walker (top and above left) now displays his outstanding skills at the University of Georgia. The All-America selection lists near the top in virtually every national rushing department. Mike Atkinson, a standout at Princeton, NC, the past four seasons, is the newest rushing phenom. He concluded his career a year ago by moving to the top of four national listings.

SOONER STANDOUTS — Who wouldn't coach a college football team with the nation's second and fourth ranked career high school rushers on it? Barry Switzer at Oklahoma sure didn't complain. The Sooner head coach had a backfield that totaled over 15,300 yards combined as preps. Billy Sims (left) is number two all-time with 7,738 for Hooks, Texas, while David Overstreet (right) logged 7,652 for Big Sandy, Texas. Both have gone on to outstanding professional careers, Sims as an all-pro for the Detroit Lions and Overstreet as one of the Canadian Football League's top stars with Montreal. Sims, the 1978 Hiesman Trophy winner, is one of only two prep running backs to be listed twice in the top 10 in most yards rushing for a season, gaining 3,090 in 1973 and 2,885 in 1974. The legendary Ken Hall of Sugar Land, Texas, is the only other high schooler to accomplish the feat.

TOP RANKING — (left to right): Jimmy Jordan, Wally Woodham, and Joe Ferguson hold the top three spots in three national high school seasonal passing categories. Jordan leads all three. Woodham and Jordan, both out of Tallahassee Leon High School in Florida, led Florida State University to one of its best seasons ever in 1979. In 1975, Jordan passed for a national record 4,098 yards, breaking Woodham's 1974 mark of 3,571. Ferguson, a Shreveport Woodlawn, Louisiana, product, totaled 3,290 in 1968. The three also rank one, two, three in most passes attempted for one season and most completed.

BEGINNING . . . AND END — One of the most devastating combinations in the nation's prep football history, Pat Haden (left) and end John McKay, Jr. (right), here shown playing for Southern Cal, holds six national records between them. Haden and McKay led La Puente Bishop Amat, California, into the California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section championship final game twice, winning the title in 1970. Haden, a Rhodes Scholar now with the Los Angeles Rams, set a national record in '70 with 42 touchdown passes, 29 to McKay, a national standard for a receiver. Haden and Los Angeles Wilson standout Ron Cuccia are the only two high school quarterbacks to pass for more than 7,000 yards and complete 500 or more passes in their careers. McKay holds two other national records and ranks second in five others. McKay went on to play for father John McKay, Sr., at Tampa Bay of the NFL.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS — The quarterback terror of southern California during the mid-1970s, Ron Cuccia (left) of Los Angeles Wilson, holds the national high school records in most career passing yardage (8,804), most career completions (528), and most career touchdown tosses (91). Gary Kubiak (center) is one of only seven prep passers to gain more than 6,000 yards passing in his high school career. The Houston St. Plus, Texas, graduate threw for 2,448 yards and 29 touchdowns as a junior in 1977. He missed three games in '78 due to injury but still passed for 16 TD's. National Football League quarterback Tommy Kramer (right) was bumped from the national passing records by Kubiak. Kramer, while throwing for San Antonio Lee, Texas, passed for 5,485 yards. In college, Kramer led the NCAA Division I in passing and total offense in 1976 for Rice University. He threw for 21 touchdowns and 3,317 yards.

LIKE HORSE AND BUGGY — Although these two never teamed up together, rarely do you find a star quarterback without a star receiver. Rob Hertel (left), shown here playing for Southern Cal, is one of several California high school stars to make it big at the PAC-10 powerhouse. Hertel made several national passing listings and is only one of seven high school quarterbacks to complete over 400 passes in their career. Hertel led Hacienda Heights Los Altos from 1970 through 1972. Ron Cuccia's favorite target, Steve Martinez (right) of Los Angeles Wilson, holds four national marks including most pass reception yardage in one season (1,846) and most receptions (121) in a season.

Prep stars scoring big in pro ranks

While none of the three-time state champs has made a big hit in professional golf, some of the present PGA stars did enjoy noteworthy success on the high school level. For example —

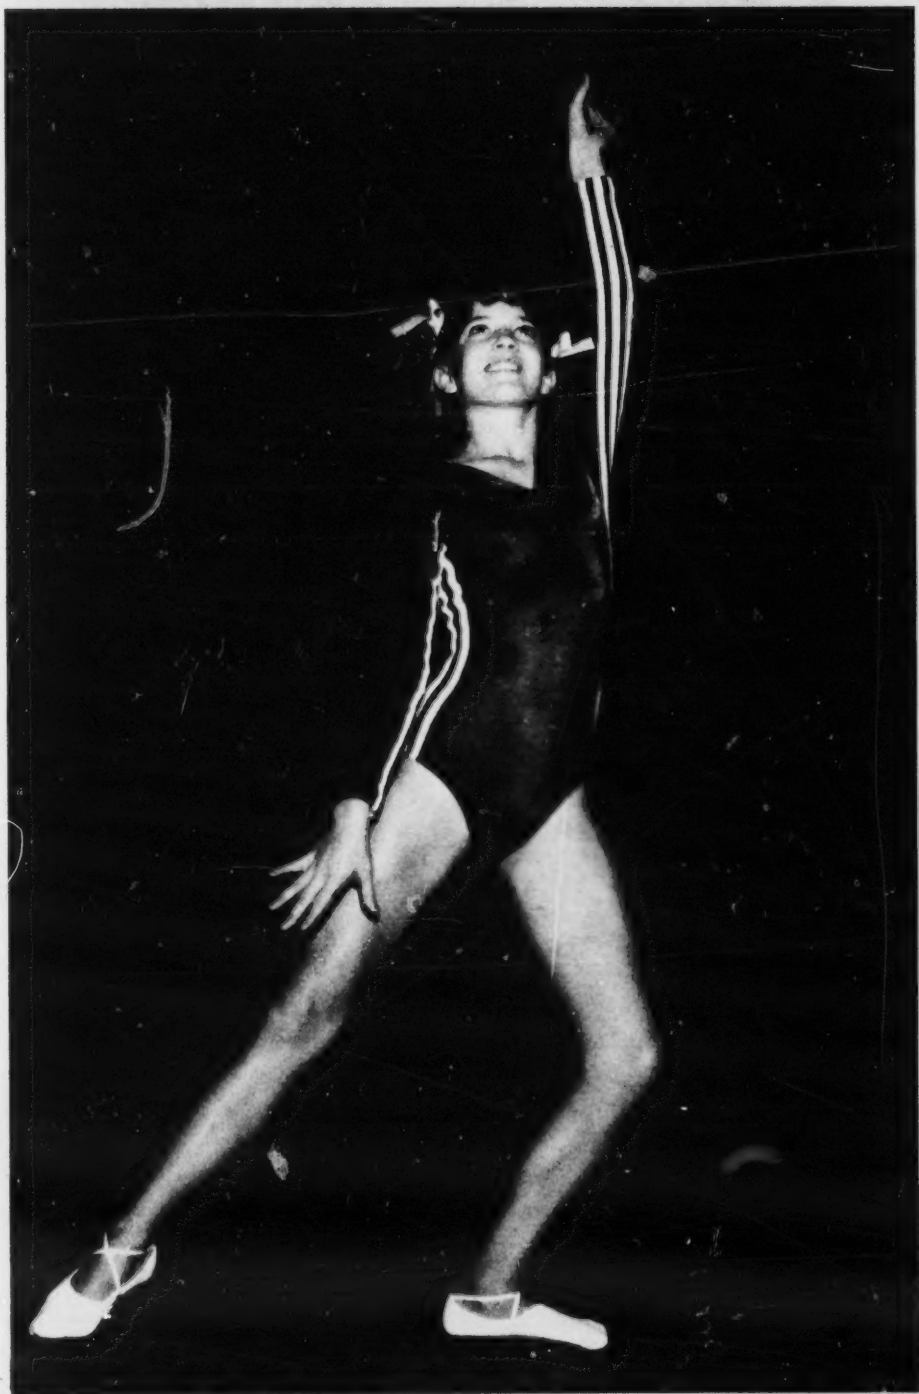

Jack Nicklaus, considered by many to be the best professional golfer of all time, left his mark not only in the college ranks at Ohio State but also on the high school level while at Columbus Upper Arlington, Ohio. The "Golden Bear," winner of virtually every major professional title, led the Golden Bears (believe it or not) to the state championship crown in 1956 while scoring the second lowest 36-hole total in the state's high school championship series. The blond bomber stroked a masterful 144 in pacing Arlington to one of its nine championship titles. Nicklaus' 148 in 1957, though good enough for his second championship, wasn't enough for Arlington to overcome Cincinnati St. Xavier.

Tom Kite and Ben Crenshaw combined to hold on to the Texas Conference Class AAAA crown for four straight years. Kite, playing for Austin McCallum, scored championship rounds in 1967 and '68 before Crenshaw took up the reigns, winning individual titles for rival Austin High School in 1969 and '70. Only Crenshaw's 1969 title propelled either school to a team championship. San Antonio Alamo Heights was the main spoiler, winning the AAAA title two of the four years.

In that same time span Bruce Lietzke of Beaumont Forest Park won the Texas Conference AAA title in 1967 but failed to repeat as individual champion in '68. Some consolation for Lietzke in 1968 was his team's performance. The Trojans ended Seguin's five-year reign atop the AAA with a 640 score. Seguin's streak ranks in a sixth-place tie nationally for most consecutive state team championships won.

Andy North, the 1978 United States Open champion, captured a pair of high school crowns in Wisconsin. The Menasha star shot a 152 in winning the 1966 title and a sparkling 143 in garnering the '67 crown. Neither North nor the rest of the state's finest golfers could keep Madison West from winning its 10th and 11th state team titles. West, which won again in 1976, is the all-time national leader with 12 state titles to its credit.

ANOTHER DOMINATING FORCE — Billings West has won eight Montana state girls gymnastics championships, leaving it tied with three other schools for the runner-up spot in all-time titles. Pictured above is the 1979 team.

Closing in on the leaders

Last season a pair of schools made big strides in reaching the top of the high school girls gymnastics scene.

Bellingham Sebaste now lists second in both consecutive and all-time state championships after wiring together its eighth straight Washington state championship.

Sandy Jordan, which has captured eight Utah state titles in the last nine years, now lists in a four-team tie for second place on the all-time grouping.

TOP RUNG: — Winner of 16 individual state titles, Eugene Churchill, Oregon, graduate Jim Kelch (left) performs on the rings during the 1973 state championships. The former Lancer won three state all-around titles, twice leading Churchill to state team championship honors. Kelch won the 1972-73 title in March of 1973, won the 1973 fall title later that year (Oregon switched from a winter to a fall season), and ended his career with the 1974 title. Kelch swept all seven individual events (including all-around) in his sparkling 1973 fall performance. One of only six boys to ever win three all-around gymnastics titles, Jim Hartung, formerly of Omaha South High School in Nebraska (right), led South to three straight Nebraska state titles while winning 18 individual event championships, including the three all-around titles.

AND VIDEO CASSETTES

Rules authorities have long recognized the advantages of an audio-visual approach to provide a better understanding of the rules of sports.

Through motion picture photography, these official rules films help players, coaches, officials and spectators to gain a more thorough knowledge of the rules and a better appreciation of playing skills and game administration. All films and cassettes are in color and sound.

The National Federation of State High School Associations provides rules coverage in the areas of Basketball, Football, Baseball, Wrestling, Volleyball, Track & Field, Swimming & Diving and Soccer.

All Federation productions are in 16mm, sound color films. Some films have been transferred to video cassettes in $\frac{1}{2}$ " and $\frac{3}{4}$ ". Please check the back of the book for a complete listing of films and video cassettes.

FLORIDA POWERHOUSE — Last year's edition of the Orlando Bishop Moore soccer team continued an outstanding tradition while moving the school into national prominence. Bishop Moore jumped into the top ten by extending a streak without being shut out to 70 contests and also used a stubborn defense to whitewash 15 opponents a year ago.

Fleetwood name game brings records

Moyer, Mayer, Meyer . . . now Moyer again. It's confusing; but it's great soccer. Fleetwood, PA, has a great soccer tradition, but it also has a habit of finding soccer greats with similar names.

First there was Doug Moyer. He scored 59 goals in 1978 to establish a national record while leading Fleetwood to a 29-1-0 mark and the state championship. He ended his career with 103 goals, fourth best ever.

Then came Glenn Mayer, who scored 54 goals in '79 — second most ever — and who ended his four-year career with 99 goals to move into sixth place in the career scoring listings.

Also, there is Kevin Meyer, a goalie who posted 41 shutouts to rank second on the all-time list.

And Doug Moyer's younger brother, Jerry, established a national career record of 104 assists, including an all-time record 43 assists last fall. Jerry's career mark bested the former standard established by . . . who else . . . brother Doug.

As a result of the work of Doug Moyer and Glenn Mayer, Fleetwood established a former national scoring record of 166 goals in 1978 that still lists second all-time. The '79 squad barely fell short of that mark with 165 goals, third all-time. Last fall Fleetwood's 1980 edition out-performed all its great teams of the past, posting a perfect 32-0 record with a national standard of 179 goals en route to the Pennsylvania state championship.

SCORING MACHINE — The 1980 Fleetwood soccer team ranks as the most prolific scoring unit in national history, having registered 179 goals while rolling to an unblemished 32-0 record and the Pennsylvania state crown.

Arundel enjoys big day at the plate

It was big inning after big inning last year when Arundel of Gambrills, Maryland, met Harwood Southern in a contest that produced a 55-18 Arundel victory and a national record 73 combined runs. Arundel established national individual game records by exploding for 54 hits and the 55 tallies. Brenda Peressa of Arundel added her name to the national record book by registering an all-time high 9 hits against the Southern pitching staff.

STEALING THE SHOW —Kim Wagner of Wauzeka, Wisconsin, closed out an outstanding prep career last year by virtually rewriting the national stolen base record section. With an all-time single season theft total of 36 in 1981 she moved her career record to 119 stolen bases. While only nabbed stealing once in four seasons, she posted consecutive stolen base campaigns of 24, 27, 32 and 36. Her speed was only one of Wauzeka's offensive weapons as her consistent bat produced a national record .603 career average and 98 RBI, also an all-time individual best. Wagner, who hit .488 as a freshman and also pounded out averages of .583, .648 and .656, was a four-time Ridge and Valley Conference first-team selection. As a junior she fashioned an amazing .882 on-base percentage, reaching safely in 60 of 68 plate appearances.

SHOWING FORM — The author of three straight no-hitters, Brooklyn Center pitcher Lynn Schlichting unleashes a pitch. The right-hander led the Centaurs to a fourth place finish in the 1979 Minnesota state Class AA softball tournament and finished her outstanding prep career with a 38-10 record.

ALMOST UNTOUCHABLE — One of only three prep softball hurlers to win 50 or more games during their careers, Grosse Isle, Michigan product Roxanne Abramowski (left) pitched her way to a near-perfect 57-1 record in two years. Abramowski led the Class B Red Devils to the 1977 state championship with an unblemished 31-0 mark, a national record for most wins in one season. Sue Rice (right), the Massachusetts Softball "Player-of-the-Year" in 1978, ranks in the top 10 in two national high school softball pitching categories. The Newburyport righthander is in a tie for fourth nationally for most wins in a high school career (44), and her 258 strikeouts ranks sixth all-time for a career. Rice lost only nine games in four years.

ONE OF A KIND — JILL STERKEL of Hacienda Heights Wilson, CA, set four national records in 1979, three of which still stand. She is the only girl to ever go under 23 seconds in the 50-yard freestyle, under 50 seconds in the 100-yard freestyle and under 55 seconds in the 100-yard butterfly.

WHAT A YEAR — Marybeth Linzmeler of Mission Viejo, CA, enjoyed a storybook year in 1980-81, establishing a pair of individual national records and helping her school set another standard. She became the first girl swimmer to eclipse 4:42.0 in the 500-yard freestyle by turning in a 4:41.30 clocking for a national mark. The versatile California standout also recorded an all-time best 200-yard freestyle time of 1:46.62 and was a member of Mission Viejo's 400-yard freestyle relay team that produced a national record 3:28.91 showing.

Something old . . . something new

The dominant names in girls swimming are still names from past seasons, but a number of outstanding individuals broke into the record listings during the most recent season.

In girls competition, the premier recordholder is still Jill Storkel, the Hacienda Heights, CA, Wilson star. She still holds three national records; and for each of her record-setting events, she is the only gal to break certain barriers: 23 seconds in the 50-yard freestyle, 50 seconds in the 100-yard freestyle and 55 seconds in the 100-yard butterfly.

Cynthia Woodhead of Riverside Polytechnic, CA, a record-setter in 1979 with a 2:02.06 clocking in the 200-yard individual medley, once owned three records. She now ranks second all-time in both the 200-yard freestyle and 500-yard freestyle events in addition to her top individual medley performance.

Marybeth Linzmeler of Mission Viejo, CA, who shattered Woodhead's freestyle marks, is the new name in girls swimming. Her 4:41.30 clocking in the 500-yard event puts her in a class by herself as she is the only girl to best 4:42.0 in the event. Her national record of 1:46.62 in the 200-yard freestyle stands as the only time under the 1:47.00 level.

Other outstanding performances last year were turned in by Florida products Patty Clark of Cardinal Newman and Terry Blazey of Buchholz and Melanie Buddenmeyer of Penn Valley, PA.

Clark established an all-time best in the 100-yard breaststroke by logging a 1:03.27 performance and also registered the top 1980-81 showing in the 200-yard individual medley (2:02.68). Blazey turned in the second best performance of all-time in the 100-yard breaststroke, narrowly trailing Clark's all-time best with a 1:03.40. Buddenmeyer turned in the year's top time and the second best clocking ever in the 100-yard butterfly (55.058).

WHAT STYLE — Andy Coan holds a pair of national records, turning in times of 20.19 in the 50-yard freestyle and 43.99 in the 100-yard event in 1975 for Fort Lauderdale Pine Crest.

OUTSTANDING TRADITIONS — Steve Borowski (left) has coached Honolulu Punahou to many of its national-record 23 consecutive boys state swimming titles. Dick Hannula (right) has directed Tacoma Wilson to 22 consecutive Washington Interscholastic Activities Association boys state swimming crowns and has his school just one title shy of national marks for both all-time and consecutive state crowns.

Consecutive (Cont.)

- 11 Cincinnati St. Xavier, OH (1970-80)
- 10 Bartlesville College, OK (1962-71)
- 9 Tooele, UT (1955-63)
- 9 Ft. Lauderdale, FL (1948-56)
- 9 Trenton Central, NJ (1933-41)

FAMILIAR FACES — Dave Wilson (top left) of Cincinnati Anderson ranks among the all-time bests in the 100-yard backstroke as does Cincinnati Finneytown product Glenn Mills (bottom left) in the 100-yard breaststroke. Brian Goodell (right) of Mission Viejo, CA, produced national marks in the 200 and 500-yard freestyle events in 1977.

JAEGER'S DOMINATE ILLINOIS TENNIS — Susy Jaeger (right), of Prairie View Stevenson, bares down in Illinois state final action. In 1978 Jaeger became the second girl in the state's seven-year girls tournament history to win three singles titles. She could have become the second Illinois prep and only the sixth girl nationally to win four singles titles, but was upset by Hinsdale Central's Susan Whitney in the semifinals of the 1979 tourney. Freshman sister Andrea Jaeger defeated Whitney, 6-3, 6-0 in the finals; so the 1979 championship trophy stayed in the same family. Andrea repeated as state champ in 1980 and then went on to dazzle the world at Wimbledon, where she became the youngest player ever to reach the semi-finals. Also runner-up in the 1980 U.S. Clay Court championships, she has rapidly emerged as one of the top players on the international women's tennis scene.

TEN-YEAR WINNING STREAK — From May 1, 1969 through May 2, 1979, Henry M. Gunn High School of Palo Alto registered 200 consecutive dual meet victories, the longest string in prep history. During much of the same time period, another California school — LaJolla — put together the nation's second best streak by winning 185 contests from 1970-78. Shown above is Gunn's 1979 team.

A PAIR OF ACES — Ralph Sandell (left) is one of only eight high school players to capture four state singles titles. The Pyote standout claimed Texas singles championships from 1960-63. Greer Kothmann (right), one in a long list of Texas high school greats, won the Lone Star state's singles championships for Junction High School from 1958-61.

A WINNER AT EVERY STOP -- MARTY RIESSEN, shown at left while playing for Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, and at right in action on the professional circuit, is one of a handful of preps to win four state high school singles titles. The Hinsdale Central product won the Illinois state crown 1957, '58, '59 and '60 for father-coach Claire. One of only two men to win three Big Ten singles titles, he then went on to star at Northwestern under his father's guidance.

ACED — It wasn't quite like having Roscoe Tanner blow serves past them, but several pro tennis stars and former stars were "aced" as far as making the national tennis listings in the Record Book. To be listed in the individual listings a player had to win four singles titles (or number-one singles titles where applicable). The only notable pro to qualify was Hinsdale Central, Illinois' Marty Riesen. The list of "also-rans" is impressive. Clark Graebner (right) won three Ohio state titles while attending Lakewood High School, capturing the crown 1959-61. Former United States Davis Cup Coach Tony Trabert also claimed three Ohio titles. The Cincinnati Walnut Hills' star picked up the championship trophy in 1947, '48 and '49. On the younger side, Eddie Dibbs (Miami Beach) and Harold Solomon (Ft. Lauderdale) each have stood upon the winner's platform in Florida.

*In all events where both the metric and British distances are listed together, the Honor Roll is in the metric measure, and the Progression of Records and the National Record are in the British measure. In this case, the national record time for the British distance performance is better than that recorded for the shorter metric distance performance.

Family tradition

In 1979 the Howard sisters — Arta, Sherri, Denean and Mattina — of San Bernardino San Geronio, CA, established a mile-relay national mark of 3:44.89. That same year Sherri posted a 53.65 440-yard dash time for another national standard. Not to be outdone, Denean set the state 400-meter mark of 53.65 the following spring.

Rewriting the records

Of the 30 girls track and field records 15 have been established in the last two years, including eight new marks in 1981. Only two records — Kathy McMillan's 22-1 $\frac{3}{4}$ long jump effort and Ann Turbyne's 52-6 $\frac{1}{2}$ shot put (8-lb.) — have not been equaled or bested in the last five years.

*In all events where both the metric and British distances are listed together, the Honor Roll is in the metric measure, and the Progression of Records and the National Record are in the British measure. In this case, the national record time for the British distance performance is better than that recorded for the shorter metric distance performance.

STILL THE BEST — Leslie Deniz (top left) broke the national girls record in the discus by more than five feet with a 1979 throw of 167-1. Deniz moved the national record to 172-11 in 1980 for Gridley Union in California. Cheri Williams (top right) of Livermore, CA, turned in the national girls two-mile record of 10:09.8 in 1978. Logging one of the most notable girls track performances in history, the San Bernardino San Geronimo, CA, mile-relay squad (bottom) posted a 3:44.89 time to claim the national record in 1979. The Spartan team consisted of four sisters — Arta, Sherri, Denean, and Mattina Howard. In addition, Sherri holds the national 440-yard dash record and Denean is the national 400-meter champion.

COACHING LEGEND — Earl F. Quigley guided Little Rock (now Central) to 18 consecutive Arkansas boys state track championships, every state meet held during the 20 years he coached there. His teams lost only two of 100 track meets. His football teams posted 149 wins, 56 losses and 11 ties (.609 percentage) and won eight state championships. His basketball teams won 306 games against only 95 losses (.763 percentage) and captured four state titles. His baseball teams went 207-37 (.848) and were state champs nine times. His overall coaching record of 760 wins, 190 losses, 11 ties (.791 percentage) and 39 state championships is one of the truly great records in all of sports.

Vaulting to the top

Highlighting four new entrees into the boys track and field record book was an outstanding 1981 performance by pole vaulter Joe Dial. In 1980 the Marlow, OK, standout vaulted 17-5½ to best the previous national record by one inch. This past season Dial moved the mark up over four inches, setting a new pole vault record of 17-9½.

Standing the test of time

Although four new records were added to the boys track and field section this past year, several outstanding performances have withstood challenges year after year. The oldest boys high school mark belongs to a trio of hurdlers — Steve Caminiti, Don Castronovo and Earl McCullouch — who all established the 180-yard low hurdles standard of 18.1 in 1964.

Other records established in the 60s and early 70s that still stand include Pleasant Hill, OR, product Russ Francis who tossed the javelin 254-11 in 1971 prior to going on to star as one of the NFL's premier tight ends. Distance greats Jim Ryun of Wichita (KS) East and Steve Prefontaine of Coos Bay Marshfield, OR, also own all-time high school bests. Ryun, the only sub-four minute miler in prep history, recorded a 3:58.3 in his specialty while Prefontaine covered the two-mile distance in a record 8:41.5. Richard Joyce at Whittier Sierra, CA, owns another of the oldest marks in the books, having covered 880 yards in 1:48.8 in 1965.

ALL-TIME CHAMPS — The 1979 Safford volleyball team completed a national record performance by capturing its 12th consecutive Arizona state championship. The string of state titles also ranks as the top all-time standard.

BIG WINNERS — Farmington High School (above) has won seven Connecticut small girls volleyball championships to rank third on the all-time title list. During a stretch from 1965-74 the school wired together 73 consecutive match wins for the sixth best showing in history. Shown above is the '79 squad which added a seventh state title to Farmington's trophy display. Cardinal Gibbons of Fort Lauderdale (below) earned a top ten ranking for both all-time and consecutive state championships by recording five straight Florida Class AAA titles from 1975-79. The school won 54 straight matches during the 1976 and '77 seasons. The '79 squad is pictured.

ALL-TIME BEST — One of six teams to register 100 or more consecutive dual meet victories, Elma Iroquois Central, NY, heads the list with 150. The Chiefs, who set the national mark under the direction of two coaches, were left in tears when the streak ended in January 1967, after 11 years of winning. Iroquois Central dedicated its record-breaking 141st win to former coach Norm Foster, who had directed the first 129 victories of the streak. Coach Duane "Pat" Patterson (second row, far left) headed the final 21 wins.

ILLINOIS STANDOUTS — Mark Ruettiger of New Lenox Providence (left) closed out his career in 1981 by becoming his state's first four-time champ. Ruettiger captured 105 consecutive wins from 1979-81. Ed Giese of Bensenville Fenton (center) owns his state's record for career victories (172) and lists among the nation's top five in both career wins and consecutive victories (132). Jon Gibson (right) of Antioch posted 150 wins from 1976-80 to rank ninth in career triumphs.

PINNING RECOGNITION — Ray "Buz" Bergfeld (left) did his part in Overland Ritenour, MO's national record 14 consecutive state wrestling championships. Bergfeld is one of two Missouri preps to win four state championships, garnering the honors from 1951-54. Michigan's first four-time state champion, Mike Mills (center) of Mt. Pleasant finished his sparkling career with a 136-7-1 record. He won state titles in four different weight classes — 98, 112, 132 and 138. The only blemishes on Mark Iacovelli's (right) career record are one loss and one tie. The Ithaca, NY, star won his other 135 matches, including 101 in a row from 1974-77.

THE WINNING EDGE

WRESTLING BY THE RULES

THE WINNING EDGE is a 17 minute, 16mm or video cassette, sound, color production. It has many interesting graphics and teaching aids that will help everyone have a better comprehension of the rules of wrestling.

Filmed at Nautilus facility in Deland, Florida, with the cooperation of Winter Park High School, Winter Park, Florida.

THE WINNING EDGE is designed to provide a vivid explanation of wrestling rules. It covers the following areas: starting positions, stalling, control situations, technical violations, illegal holds and pinning situations.

THE WINNING EDGE is recommended for all coaches, officials, players and fans who are interested in a better understanding of the rules and officiating technique in high school wrestling.

Film production was made possible by
Nautilus Sports/Medical Industries and the National Federation of State High School Associations

RENTAL INFORMATION: Schools and organizations who wish to book the 16mm film should contact their State High School Association or the National Federation.

1981 SURVEY

Overall increase in sports participation

Results of the 1981 National Federation Sports Participation Survey indicate an overall increase in the number of high school students participating in competitive athletics, which were sponsored during the 1980-81 school year by the approximately 18,000 high schools in the United States belonging to the National Federation's member state associations. The National Federation survey represents approximately 89 percent of the nation's public and private senior high schools.

The survey indicates the end of a two consecutive year decline in the total sports participation number due primarily to a significant increase in female participation. The participation figures for female and male participants are interesting. There were slightly more than 1.85 million female and 3.50 male participants in interscholastic athletics during the last school year, compared to 1.75 million female and 3.52 million male participants the year before. A participant is counted once for each sport in which he or she participates.

Carrying the female-male participation numbers a step further, male participation during the 1980-81 school year declined by 14,705 participants while female participation increased by 103,525 for an overall increase of 88,820 students.

Before attempting to determine the reasons for the change in participation figures, an understanding of the method by which the survey was conducted is necessary. In 1979, the survey became annual and changes were made in the data collection system. Figures from junior high schools and Canadian schools, which had been included in the surveys of the 1970's, were deleted in 1979 and the totals were logically lower. In addition, the 1980 and 1981 surveys represent more accurate information in that fewer state high school associations estimated participation instead basing their responses on more precise means such as actual surveys and eligibility rosters to measure student participation. Therefore, the current 1981 survey represents more accurate information in attempting to evaluate the number of participants in interscholastic sports programs.

By way of review, boys participation started the decade of the 70's with 3.67 million participants growing to 3.77 million during the 1972-73 school year and topping off at 4.37 million during the 1977-78 year.

Girls participation during the 1970's began at 294,000 participants during the 1970-71 school year increasing to 1.3 million during the 1974-75 year and hitting the top at 2.1 million with the 1977-78 year.

"We are heartened to see an increase in girls participation over last year, but correspondingly disheartened at the continued three successive year decline in boys participation," commented Brice B. Durbin, executive director of the National Federation. "At a time when school athletic programs are being pushed, pulled and torn for a variety of reasons by a variety of different sources, it is necessary that high school programs reach out for more student participants in order to broaden the base of community support for athletics both now and in the future."

Durbin continued, "Keeping in mind that prior to the 1979 survey, statistics collected were not restricted to United States high schools and represented junior as well as senior high school programs, I believe that we are now seeing more accurate information. This should place us in a better position to determine in the future the reasons for increases and decreases in participation in athletic programs by both girls and boys."

The most popular sport for boys was football which accounted for more than 958,000 participants representing interscholastic teams at 15,000 plus high schools. Boys basketball continued to be the sport played by the most number of high schools topping the list at 18,041. Baseball was the sport showing the largest increase in male participation by 26,450 students over last year's figures, and soccer continued to increase with an additional 15,727 student participants.

In girls sports, basketball retained its lead as the number one participation sport (423,568 girls) and also the sport conducted by the largest number of high schools (15,595). Girls volleyball showed the largest increase with 32,000 plus additional participants; further, almost 1,500 additional schools offered volleyball for girl participants over the previous year making that sport the leader in that category.

The National Federation's 1981 Sports Participation Survey includes figures for both boys and girls in 33 different sports conducted by high schools belonging to member state associations in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. Additionally, the survey breaks down the number of participants by state, sport, boy and girl. This complete sports participation survey for 1981 is contained only in the National Federation's 1981-82 Handbook.

The National Federation and the editors of the National High School Sports Record Book would like to thank sincerely all the many people and organizations which have made this book possible. To list everyone who has made a contribution to the Record Book would be impossible. Below is a modest attempt to credit photographers, photograph sources, main contributors of information used in photo captions and stories, and the newspapers and sportswriters who have contributed work to the book. To everyone not listed, a sincere apology. Your contribution, no matter how small, was just as important in making the Record Book a success.

NOTE: Where only the name of the city, school, and state are mentioned, credit is to that high school.

Special Thanks To:

RECORD INFORMATION

RECOGNIZING THE BEST . . .

Applications are invited for all performances which might be considered for inclusion in the National High School Sports Record Book, whether as new national records or for listing among the top performances in a specific category.

Performances must be established in competition conducted in compliance with the eligibility rules of the state high school association involved and all National Federation playing rules for the sport, unless the National High School Records Committee judges the variance in rules does not significantly give advantage to the establishment of the record performance.

Applications are available through your state high school associations and the National Federation. Completed applications must be forwarded to the home state association for its endorsement prior to consideration by the National High School Records Committee.
